

4th CENTRAL EUROPEAN FUNCTIONAL PROGRAMMING SCHOOL

Budapest

June 14-24, 2011

The Central European Functional Programming School is an intensive summer school in the field of functional programming. The invited lecturers are the most prominent researchers in the field in Europe, and they will present state-of-the-art functional programming techniques.

Lectures:

- Andrew Butterfield: Reasoning about I/O in functional programs
- Clemens Grelck: Multicore SAC
- Johan Jeuring: Strategies for learning functional programming
- Rita Loogen: Eden
- Simon Marlow: Parallel and Concurrent Haskell
- Greg Michaelson: Box Calculus
- Rinus Plasmeijer: Defining distributed GUI applications with iTasks
- Kostis Sagonas: Multicore Erlang
- Mary Sheeran: Feldspar: Implementation and Application

Deadline for application:

30 April 2011

More information: <http://plc.inf.elte.hu/cefp/>

Contact: cefp@inf.elte.hu

Education and Culture DG

Lifelong Learning Programme

